MOONSHOT VISION FROM OUR FOUNDER

Sanjeev Tanna

Social Impact Entrepreneur | Chief Education Officer, NGN Learning| Founder, NGN.org | Silicon Valley, USA

Sanjeev Tanna, a visionary social innovator and education reformer from Silicon Valley, USA, is redefining preventive mental health care and student empowerment in schools. With a background in medical innovation and over 60 internationally aligned academic publications, Sanjeev has become a leading force in the global movement toward emotionally resilient, ethically grounded, and logically empowered learners.

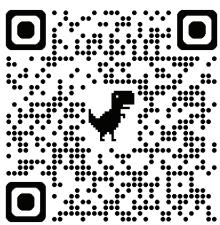

He is the founder of Next Generation Nations (NGN.org) and Chief Education Officer at NGN Learning, where he leads the development of the S.E.E.L®. framework — Social, Emotional, Ethical, and Logical Learning. This U.S. – India blended approach offers schools a powerful, structured way to nurture emotional well-being and mental health readiness from an early age.
